THE RETURN TO THE ARCHIVE

FOCAL POINT (SCHWERPUNKT), SIMON DUBNOW INSTITUTE YEARBOOK XVII

GUEST EDITOR: DR. LINA BAROUCH

MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 2021

20:00 (JERUSALEM) / 19:00 (LEIPZIG)

In this event, we will celebrate the recent publication of the focal point The Return to the Archive: Dispersal, Transmission, and Anticipation in Personal Archives between Germany and Israel, an important scholarly product of the international archival project “Traces and Treasures of German-Jewish History in Israel” (2012-2019), initiated and run by the Rosenzweig Minerva Center, Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach and the Dubnow Institute.

This section includes nine articles that were written by young scholars who participated in this project as archivists and researchers in the humanities and as such stress the understanding of archive as a participatory process related to migration, flight and nation-building. It also brings to light important empirical findings from the personal estates of German-Jewish intellectuals and scholars, in fields spanning from orientalism to city planning, zoology, librarianship and more.

Chair:

Benjamin Pollock (Director, Rosenzweig Minerva Center)

Speakers:

Caroline Jessen (Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach)

Lina Barouch (Independent Scholar / Minshar College of Art)

Amit Levy (Rosenzweig Minerva Center)

Enrico Lucca (Dubnow Institute)

Yfaat Weiss (Director, Dubnow Institute / Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

The event will be held online via Zoom and live-streamed to the FRMRC's Facebook page
